SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

The 41st Regiment

The 41st Regiment originated in the year 1928 with a membership of thirty-nine. The charter members marched bravely into Captain Mingle's class for their starting drills and they drilled long and faithfully on the A B C's as well as on the numbers. The nine Privates, 1st Class who have remained loyal to the good old 41st are: Maxine Bloomfield, Ila Brown, Dean Howell, Virginia Johnson, Jean Joor, Mary Helen Oxley, Billy Pearson, Colleen Patterson and Marvin Robertson.

The cavalry charged into the first grade where two new recruits enlisted. They were Wilbur Barrett and Homer Nelson.

Skirmishes were numerous in the second and third grades but no enlistments were taken. Private Maxine Bloomfield was transferred from the second grade regiment to the second cavalry in Iowa Center for a period of seven years.

The advance into the fourth grade proved a success as Private Robert Smith joined the force from the nearby camp, Rhodes.

The Infantry attacked the Conrad and

Collins school and succeeded in capturing two prisoners. They were two young officers, Lieutenants Miles Pearson and Stuart McCord.

The Regiment charged to the Junior High Fort and took possession of that tactical location for a period of three years. In 1935, Private Nadine Brown and Private Maxine Brown came to the regiment from Collins and Private Colleen Patterson was sent to Collins to spy out all of the new secrets. Private Eugene Henson was absent without leave from the Nevada camp but soon showed up in the Maxwell camp. Private Louis Krausman deserted the Baxter camp.

After the regiment captured the Junior High Fort they advanced to the High School where it secured new recruits. During the first year Private Maxine Bloomfield returned to her old regiment and brought with her Private LeRoy Glasgow. Private Colleen Patterson was recalled home and Private Marjorie Pearce left the Marshalltown National Guard to become a member of the 41st.

The Sophomore and Junior years were rather quiet ones except for Basket-ball games, parties, Junior-Senior Banquet and many other activities. No enlistments were taken.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY
Concluded

In the last and present year Private DeLoris Cook joined the regiment to make the roster complete. The list now shows 21 members, all in good standing. Here is the list: Wilbur Barrett, Maxine Bloomfield, Ila Brown, Maxine Brown, Nadine Brown, DeLoris Cook, LeRoy Glasgow, Eugene Henson, Dean Howell, Virginia Johnson, Jean Joor, Stuart McCord, Louie Krausman, Homer Nelson, Miles Pearson, Mary Helen Oxley, Colleen Patterson, Billy Pearson, Marjorie Pearce, Marvin Robertson and Robert Smith.

As "Mustering Out" day draws near the dear old 41st looks back on the many campaigns. Yes, it lost some. Yes, it made many mistakes. But oh! those victories.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1941, being of sound body and mind and feeling that our days in this school are numbered, do on this 27th day of May, in the year nineteen hundred and forty one, make this instrument revoking any such instrument made heretofore.

We, the Seniors of '41 do will and bequeath our good conduct and manners to the class of '42, we think they will need them.

I, Jean Joor, do bequeath my dimples to Richard Alverson.

I, Dean Howell, do bequeath my right to giggle while reciting to Albert Birchmier.

I, Mary Helen Oxley, do bequeath my strength to Jane Allen so that she will be a better basketball player next year.

I, Billy Pearson, do bequeath my graceful walk to Ardene Young.

I, Nadine Brown, do bequeath my ability to fix my hair to Virginia Smith.

I, Robert Smith, do bequeath my quietness in the Assembly to Maurice Maxwell.

I, Maxine Brown, do bequeath my slim figure to Bob Kopf.

Continued

I, Louie Krausman, do bequeath my ability to pester the girls while they are trying to study to Raymond Link.

I, Ila Brown, do bequeath my temper to Arlene Hubbard.

I, Miles Pearson, do bequeath my black and white checkered trousers to Joe Birchmier.

I, Colleen Patterson, do bequeath my tallness to Peggy Hubbard.

I, Wilbur Barrett, do bequeath my ability to argue with the teachers to Ward Partidge.

I, Marjorie Pearce, do bequeath my oboe to Harold Hudson.

I, Marvin Robertson, do bequeath my half-grown mustach to Vernon Culver.

I, Virginia Johnson, do bequeath my light complexion to Norma Threlkeld.

I, Homer Nelson, do bequeath my right to woo a certain Sophomore girl to Morris Robertson.

I, Eugene Henson, do bequeath my wavy hair to Dorothy Boyd.

I, LeRoy Glasgow, do bequeath my good looks to any girl desiring some.

SENIOR CLASS WILL
Concluded

I, Maxine Bloomfield, do bequeath my timidity to Jeffien Larsen.

I, Stuart McCord, do bequeath my ability to skid on the corners to Harold Van Hook.

I, DeLoris Cook, do bequeath my cosmetics to Mary Helen Holtby.

HUMOR

ENOUGH

Colleen: I hear that Jameson left everything he had to an orphanage.
Nadine: Really? What did he leave?
Colleen: Ten children.

SEEING THE TOWN

Virginia, riding in a trolley car, was anxious not to pass her destination. The poked the conductor with her umbrella, "Is that the First National Bank?"
"No mum," replied the conductor, "that's my stomach."

NOT HOMESICK

LeRoy was in the war, at every explosion he strove for the rear line. His colonel talked to him about it. "You shouldn't be afraid LeRoy, why, what if you do stop a shell?" Heaven is your home. "Yes", I know, replied LeRoy, "But I'm not homesick."

TOO LATE

First Cannibal: "Is I late for dinner?"
Second Cannibal: "You is, everybody is eaten."

NATURALLY

Maxine Brown: Have you ever noticed that most successful men are bald?
Jean Joor: "Naturally, they come out on top."

TAKEN CARE OF

Lois Moore (eloping): "Daddy is going to be completely unstrung."
Homer: "That's all right, dearest; we'll wire him at once."

MEOW

Ila Brown: Whenever I'm in the dumps, I get myself a new hat.
Louie K: I was wondering where you got them.

DON'T BE TOO HASTY

The aviation instructor having delivered a lecture on parachute work concluded: "And if it doesn't open --well gentlemen, that's what is known as --jumping to a conclusion."

IT'S NOT FAIR

Marjorie Pearce: He's so romantic, everytime he speaks to me he says, "Fair Lady".
Mary Helen Oxley: "There's nothing romantic about that, it's just a habit, he used to be a street car conductor."

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

Uncle Miles: "Nowadays I never see a girl blush, in my day it was very different."
Neice: "Why, Uncle Miles! Whatever did you tell them?"

ACQUAINTANCE

Marvin chased the train but missed it. As he slowly walked back, Eugene asked, "Miss the train?"
"Oh, not much," replied Marvin. "You see, I never got to know it very well."

NON STOP

Homer: "What's the hurry?" "What are you running for?"
Dean: "I'm trying to stop a fight."
Homer: "Who's fighting?"
Dean: "Me and another fellow."

FACULTY'S VIEW OF SOME PUPILS

You look like nothing
You act like nothing
Nothing seems to be your aim;
You walk like nothing and
You talk like nothing,
Nothing and you are the same.

NEVER stop a man if you see him running with a hatbox. He's probably rushing home to get the hat to his wife before the hat styles change.

There's room on top,
The Senior said;
As he placed his hand,
On the Freshie's head.

KNOWLEDGE

Student: "But, officer, I'm a high school student."
Cop: "Come on, ignorance is no excuse."

Small Boy: "What is college bred, Pop?"
Pop: (with son in college) "They make college bread, my boy, from the flour of youth and the dough of old age."

Doctor: "I will examine you for $10.00."
Billy Pearson: "Go to it, if you find it, I'll give you half."

With a charming air of romance and pleasant sentimentality, the company were discussing how each married couple among them first met.
"And how did you first meet your wife?" the little man in the corner was asked.
"Gentlemen, I did not meet her," he replied solemnly, "she overtook me."

Quick, in your seat
Don't speak, don't smile,
Miss Shove is coming
Right down the aisle,
Miss Shove is nearing,
To quiet the riot,
But she'll hardly catch
The disturbers, they're quiet,
Everyone looks at her,
Miss Shove don't smile
She appears to enjoy
Patrolling the aisle.

Doctor: (To colored man being examined for life insurance): "What did your father die of?"
Negro: "Ah don't don't know, boss, but it wasn't nothing serious."
